

If anything in the world is worth doing well, advertising is that thing. Doubt and uncertainty as to results should never accompany an order for advertising.

The Wichita Daily Eagle.

Don't advertise in a half-hearted, listless manner; word your advertisement and run it as though you were determined to reap good results.

WICHITA KANSAS, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 28, 1891—TWELVE PAGES.

WHOLE NO. 2223.

BITTING BROS.

THEY JUMP AT THE CHANCE

Don't take too many chances but jump at the right kind of a chance when it comes your way. We can make more favorable terms with you than some manufacturers could offer. If we were chasing after large profits we could not begin to quote the figures we are asking, but we haven't any such object in view. There is only a fractional difference between the cost to us and the cost to you and you never had a better chance for buying at what are virtually wholesale prices. You don't need to be an expert to see that we have almost swept aside our narrow margins when for $8.00 you get an all wool Scotch suit. We are closing out a few sack and frock suits in small sizes at $5.00; raw material cost more.

The hot weather is reducing our stock of Summer coats and vests, but can fit you yet in some choice patterns, prices from 50c to $10.00 for coats and vests to match, Silk and Fancy wash vests.

200 mens cotton working pants at 50c. This is our fifth invoice and no more after this lot is closed.

In Summer Neglige Shirts, we have the biggest line in the state, any price or size you want. Mail orders a special feature.
